A - las, my love, you do me wrong,
 Your vows you've bro - ken, like my heart,
 I have been rea - dy at your hand,
 If you in - tend thus to dis - dain,
 My men were cloth - ed all in green,
 Thou couldst de - sire no earth - ly thing,
 Well, I will pray to God on high,
 Ah, Green - sleeves, now fare - well, a - dieu,

To cast me off dis - cour - teous - ly.
 Oh, why did you so en - rap - ture me?
 To grant what - e - ver you would crave,
 It does the more en - rap - ture me,
 And they did e - ver wait on thee;
 but still thou hadst it rea - di - ly.
 that thou my cons - tan - cy mayst see,
 To God I pray to pros - per thee,

 And e - ven so, I still re - main
 All this was gal - lant to be seen,
 Thy mu - sic still to play and sing;
 And that yet once be - fore I die,
 For I am still thy lov - er true,

 And yet thou wouldst not love me.
 And yet thou wouldst not love me.
 Thou wilt vouch - safe to love me.
